• Outcome of Student Centric Problem Solving Teaching Learning

Project outcomes are results that occur from creating your product or service. They are the changes in policies, people and communities that you aim to achieve with your work. Outcomes may be positive or negative and sometimes occur unintentionally. These statements are specific and measurable, letting you know when you accomplished your goal. While they lead to creations, project outcomes focus more on the broad mission.

Determining if you met your business objectives.

Learning lessons for future projects and identifying areas for improvement.
