The program was on 09.08.2018 with one day on Human Rights.

The Students exchange program is a mutual, Linkage agreement with the exchange of Students for each other. For the exchange program, 20 students from the Department of English of Arts, Commerce & Science College Lanja, Dist Ratnagiri Come for their study session in Loknete Gopinathji Munde Arts, Commerce and Science college Mandangad Dist Ratnagiri one day.

On August 10, 2018, students of Arts, Commerce & Science College Lanja, Dist Ratnagiri started with the study session on Human Rights at 9:20 am. In the session Dr. Waghmare explained Human rights are rights inherent to all human beings, regardless of race, sex, nationality, ethnicity, language, religion, or any other status. Human rights include the right to life and liberty, freedom from slavery and torture, freedom of opinion and expression, the right to work and education, and many more. Human rights are rights we have simply because we exist as human beings - they are not granted by any state. These universal rights are inherent to us all, regardless of nationality, sex, national or ethnic origin, color, religion, language, or any other status. They range from the most fundamental - the right to life - to those that make life worth living, such as the rights to food, education, work, health, and liberty. Also he told about the Universal Declaration of Human Rights. The classes were interactive and participative.
